

MCCC Board of Directors Pledge to Hire Student Interns

Take the Pledge!

Each year, college students in Montgomery County seek internships with a variety of companies and industries. By providing work experience, internships are an ideal opportunity for the business community to help shape the workforce of the future.

- To inspire the next generation of talent to live and work in our community, my company will hire student intern(s), from Montgomery County, MD, in 2015.
