

Verl Zanders Emerging Business of the Year FINALISTS

Hungry Harvest

The Hungry Harvest mission is to feed hungry families and reduce food waste. Hungry Harvest has been selling and delivering boxes of “ugly” but perfectly edible fruits and vegetables directly to the doors of people in the Metro Maryland community. For every box sold, Hungry Harvest enables people in need to eat healthy through subsidized food access. In 2016, they were featured on the TV show “Shark Tank”, where they made a deal with Robert Herjavec. They expanded to Philadelphia in 2016, and plan to expand to further areas of the East Coast in 2017.

Immunomic Therapeutics, Inc.

Immunomic Therapeutics, Inc. is a privately-held, clinical stage biotech company on a mission to pioneer vaccines that transform lives. The company, based in Rockville, Maryland, is developing a new generation of nucleic acid vaccines based on the patented Lysosomal Associated Membrane Protein (LAMP) Technology. Termed LAMP-Vax™, the exclusive technology works with the body’s natural biochemistry system and has the potential to improve a broad range of vaccines. Immunomic Therapeutics successfully licensed their allergy platform to Astellas Pharma in 2015 and is now focused on cancer immunotherapy. The LAMP platform has been tested in Phase I and II clinical studies.

Integral Consulting Services

Integral Consulting Services provides a variety of IT and identity intelligence solutions to defend against terrorism and protect against cyberattacks. Integral delivers real-time solutions and support in identity intelligence, multimodal biometrics, information assurance and cybersecurity, human and open-source intelligence analysis, application development, IT service management, and program management.

Sponsored by

